MAN JOURNEYS ONE DAY AT A TIME

The old year is gone—
The New Year began—
And those of us who set store by the calendar,
Pause to sum up
the total.

YESTERDAY WAS YOURS-NOW IT IS GOD'S

There are two days which are free from fear and apprehension. Yesterday with its cares and mistakes has passed beyond reach. Save for the lingering memories you have nothing to do with yesterday, except your belief in the magnificence of the past knowing that without its storied wealth, you possess nothing.

THIS IS YOUR DAY-YOURS AND GOD'S

There is for you one day. It is well to look to this day.

Anyone can meet the challenges of just one day. You shall dutifully run the course and work at the appointed tasks.

EACH IS A NEW BEGINNING

Each present day is a new beginning of loss or gain, of sorrow or joy.

Believe in the greatness of yourself and that you are in the world for a purpose, which is to put back into life more than you have taken.

BELIEVE IN GREAT THINGS

Believe in the integrity of people, being assured that they too are trying to follow the gleam.

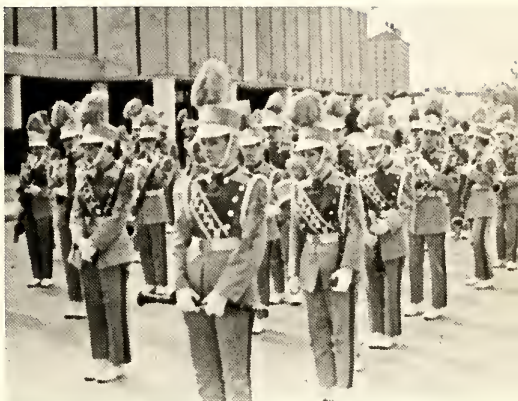

Believe in the seasoned experience of older people, whose steadfastness has preserved for you the heritage of the past.

MAKE THEM YOUR CREED

Believe in the sacredness of duty and responsibility, and help to preserve it for those who come after you.

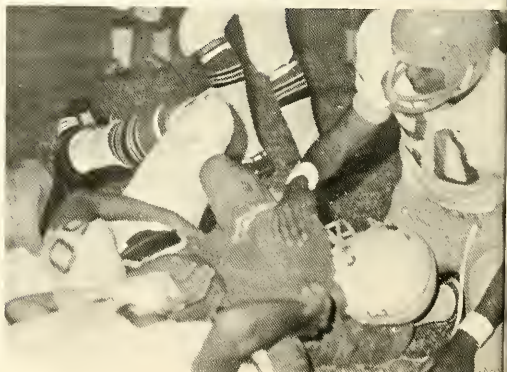

Believe in the nobility of work as the creative expression of the best within you.

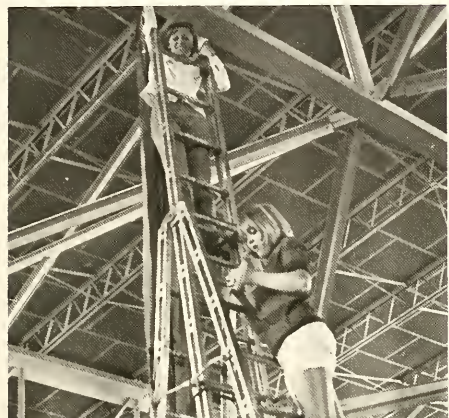

HEALTH AND LAUGHTER MAKE HAPPINESS

Believe in good health and that you can spread it through cheerfulness, wholesome use of your energy, and wise use of your leisure time.

Believe in the enrichment of play and laughter as a means of cleansing your body of staleness and your soul of bitterness.

FRIENDS ARE FOREVER AND EVER

Believe in the holiness of friendship knowing that your life is a tapestry woven from the threads of many beautiful lives.

Believe that gratitude is a becoming trait. It sweetens life, cements the bonds of friendship, and makes helping someone else a joy.

TOMORROW IS GOD'S DAY

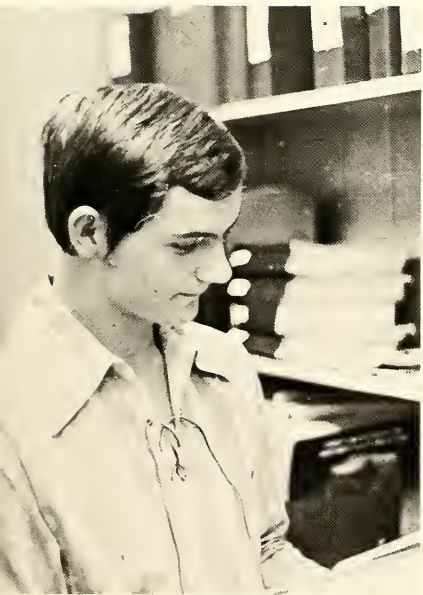

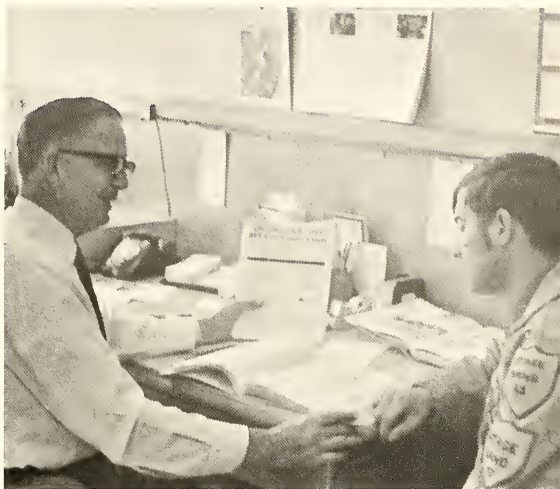

The other day free from fear is Tomorrow. It is beyond your reach, and you have no possession on that unborn day of grace. The future with its possibility of joy or tears, with its promises of good performances or its failures lies in the days ahead.

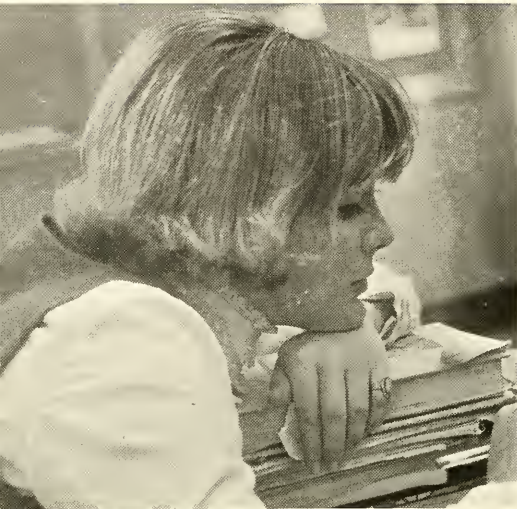

IT WILL BE YOURS

Believe in the challenge of the future, fully realizing there will be no future except it becomes alive through you.

Believe that the same love and patience that held yesterday will hold tomorrow, shining with promise into the heart of today.

SUM UP THE TOTAL

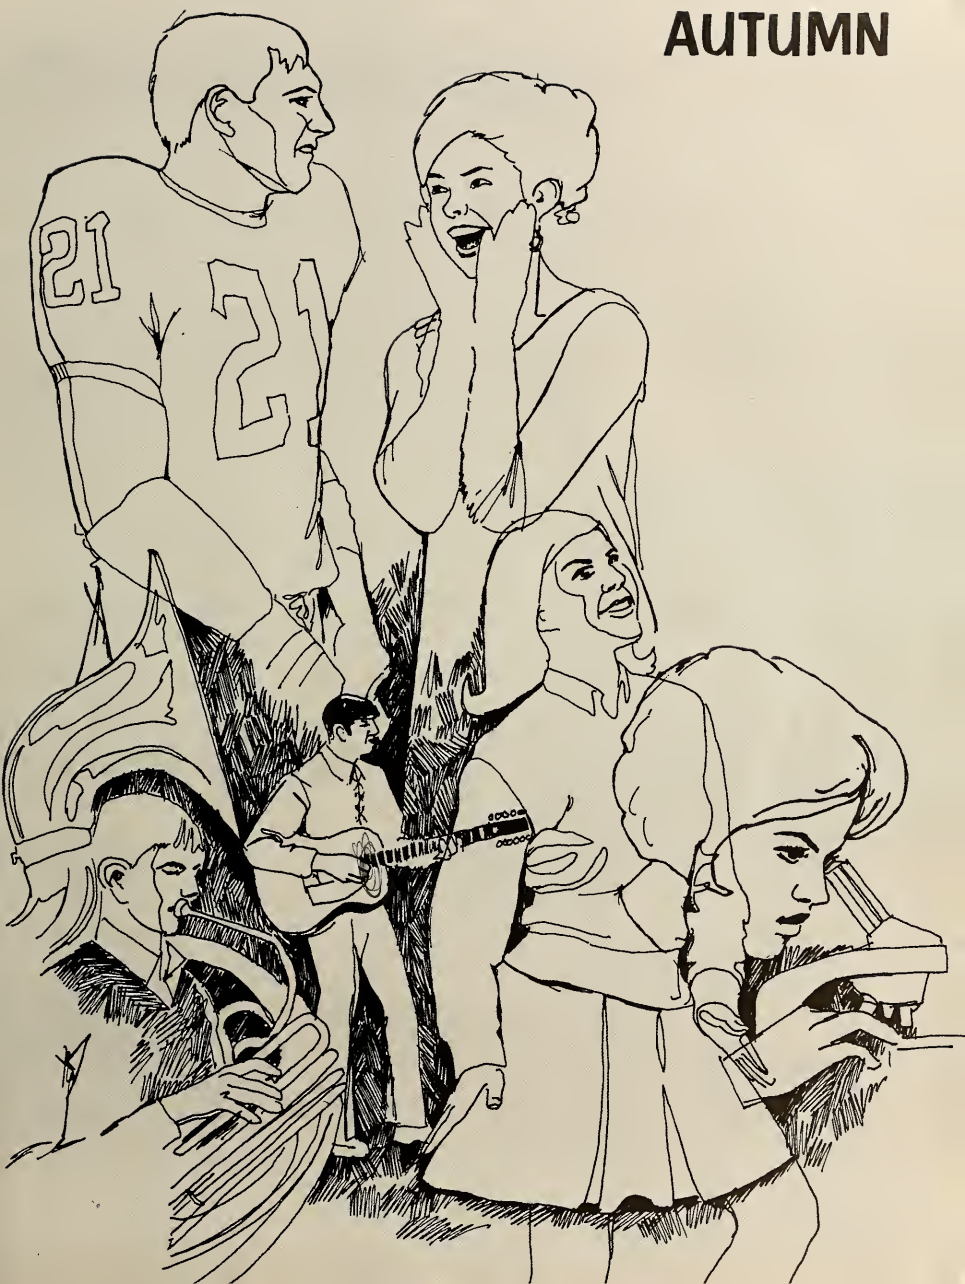

Be prepared for tomorrow, and you will be ready for each new test, the chapters of your life written in the past, and being written today, causes you to anxiously await for tomorrow . . .

Causes you to pause and sum up the total . . .

AUTUMN

SUMMER DAYS ARE PASSED

With the opening of school on August, 31, school buses that had been idle for three months began their usual run bringing students from the ranches and oil camps.

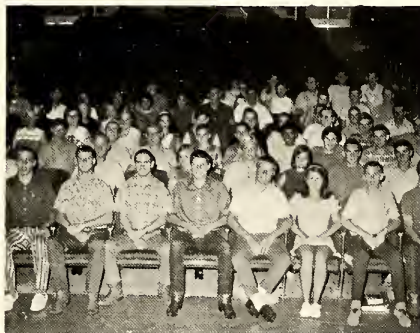

Old friends were greeted and new ones were made as the students began the routine of classes and extra curricular activities. Enrolled for the opening of 1970-71 were 83 freshmen, 70 sophomores, 69 juniors, and 65 seniors.

AUTUMN IS USHERED IN

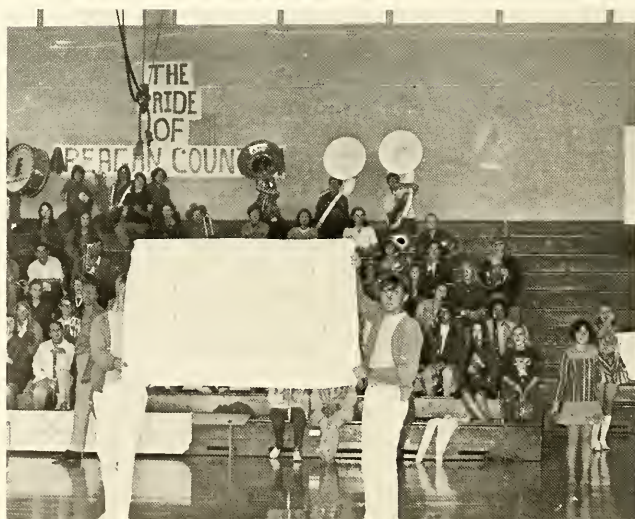

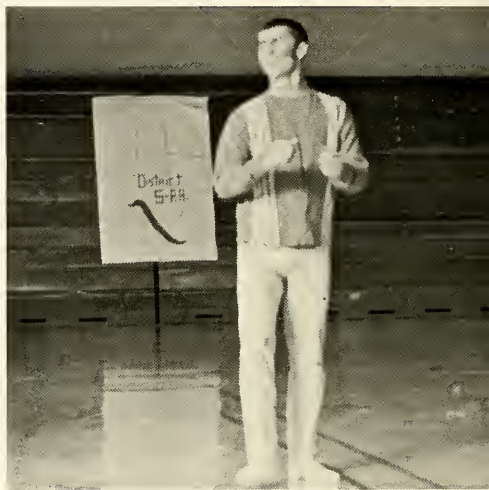

With the lazy, carefree days of summer over, autumn, with its days packed with activities, brought into being along with the six scheduled classes, pep rallies, band practice, some studying, assemblies, class meetings and football games.

THE SCHOOL SPIRIT SOARS

Simultaneously with the opening of school chants of "Go Team Go" and "Blue and Gold" are heard drifting from the gym each Friday afternoon. There the cheerleaders, the band, and the pep club along with the student body set the stage for a victory on the football field. This activity continues each Friday throughout the season with yells, songs, speeches, and skits.

WITH YELLS OF VICTORY

FREAKISH FISH

Strangely dressed, and still more strangely smelling "Fish" spent one day obeying the sharp commands of the superior Seniors.

The day was started early with performances, races, and contests. These were continued during the noon period when seniors and "fish" gathered at the county park for lunch.

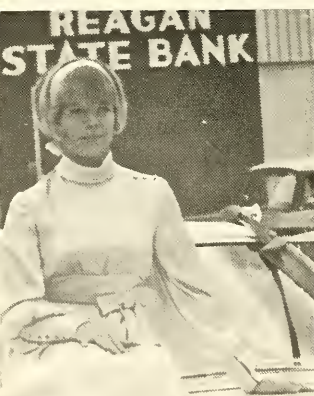

Upon the ringing of the bell at 3:45, the masquerade was over, and the "fish" were content in having strengthened their friendships with the upperclassmen and in having become a real part of RCHS.

FROLIC FOOLISHLY

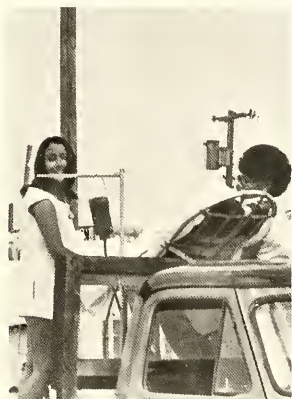

1970 HOMECOMING . . . AN AUTUMN HIGHLIGHT

On October 2, the RCHS homecoming was observed. The traditional bonfire and pep rally were held on Thursday night. On Friday afternoon under warm skies, three queen candidates, Cindy Scott, Sue Dolan, and Wanda Wagon and three class duchess Caron Johnson, junior, Cheryl McKinney, sophomore, and Mitzi Owens, freshman led the downtown parade.

Cindy Scott was crowned 1970 Homecoming Queen by Student Council president, Dick Duesing, in an impressive pre-game ceremony.

The Owls then came onto the field to defeat the Junction Eagles, making the 1970 homecoming a perfect one.

Their drive to promote a better school spirit was a contributing factor in making 1970-71 a better year. The thirty seven members decorated the lockers and decorated halls with spirit posters each week. At every home game they decorated the goal posts and sold programs. Each game found them in the stands yelling for victory.

FIGHT TEAM FIGHT

Almost immediately following the ring of the bell designating the opening of school, yells of "Go Team Go" filled the air. The crisp cool nights of Autumn ushered in the favorite sport of this season—FOOTBALL.

THE 1970 FIGHTING OWLS

Two hard workouts a day were begun for the Owls on August 17, and for the two weeks before school opened for the 1970-71 school year this schedule was maintained. Seven lettermen from last year's team reported for practice. Included in these seven were six linemen and one back, all of which were seniors.

Two pre-season scrimmage games were scheduled with Alpine and the San Angelo Junior Varsity squads. Then on September 11 at 8 p.m. the curtain was drawn and the 1970 season was underway when the Owls met the Iraan Braves' on the home field.

THOSE DIRECTING THE OWLS

This year Coach Wilburn George began his tenth year in R.C.H.S., and his ninth year as head football coach. In the past eight seasons Coach George has had 72 wins, 20 losses, and 2 ties.

In 1962 the Owls advanced to Regional play losing to Raton 29-18. Again in 1963 they advanced to Regional play losing to Merkel 19-8.

The following year, 1964, the Owls advanced to the semi-finals losing to Archer City 7-6.

In 1967 the Owls once more had a strong season, but were edged out of the district championship by Crane. The two following years 1968 and 1969 the Owls were defeated in the quarter finals by Iowa Park 0-0 and 14-7.

Joseph Lucas

MANAGERS: Jim McCoy
Charles Turner

A winning team and coach is always assisted by a capable staff. So it is with the Owls and Coach George. Johnny Hickman is again the capable assistant to Mr. George. Joseph Lucas serves as trainer for both the varsity and "B" teams.

Working long hard hours on equipment and doing the big work are the managers Jim McCoy, Buddy Poyner, and Charles Turner.

OPENING GAMES OF THE SEASON

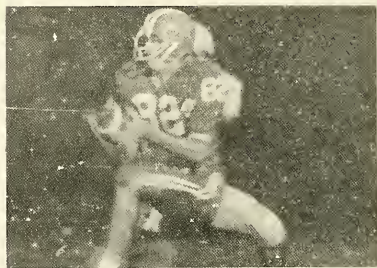

OWLS OVERCOME IRAAN 41-14

The Owls had their first victory of the season as they began action for the season. Hopes soared high with the passing of Connie Smith, quarterback, and the running of David Hickman and Roger Neill.

BALLINGER EDGES OWLS 7-6

Even though the Owls scored first they were unable to hold the lead over the Bearcats as the two teams battled on a very muddy field.

OWLS LOSE TO SONORA 7-6

The Owls battled hard and pushed the Bronco's back to their goal line various times, but the failure to kick the extra point spelled the difference.

OWLS DOWN EAGLES 32-7

The Owls put together four touchdowns, a field goal, and a safety to swing back into the winner's circle when they met the Junction Eagles in the homecoming game of 1970.

OWLS ARE DOWNED BY PANTHERS 16-14

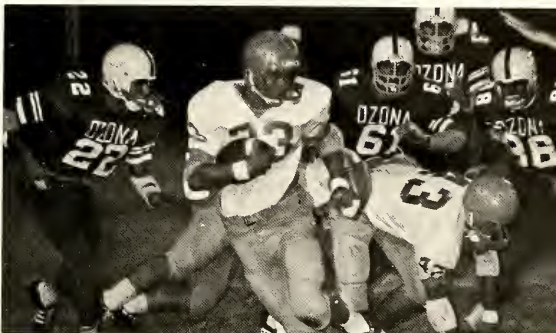

The Owls led the Panthers with two touchdowns in the first quarter but were held scoreless the remainder of the game, while the Ft. Stockton squad came alive to edge the Owls 16-14.

THE REAL WORK BEGINS

OWLS ARE DEFEATED 33-13

In the first district game the Owls were downed 33-13 by the Lions of Ozona. The Owls were not able to generate enough offensive drives to outscore the Lions. This was the first district loss for the Owls in two years.

OWLS OVERCOME BADGERS 35-12

The second district game proved a victory for the fighting Owls, who seemed to find a driving momentum, as they dumped the favored Badgers. The Owls dominated the entire game with Hickman, Dumas, and Neill making touchdowns.

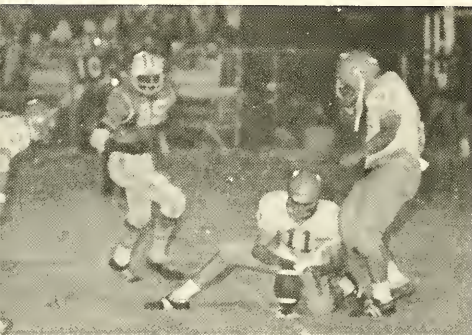

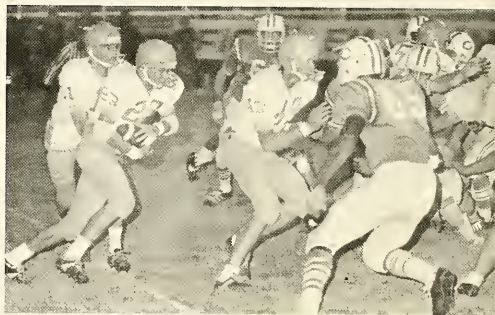

OWLS SURPRISE BULLDOGS 28-8

In this game the Owls proved to be district contenders, by upsetting the favored team from Coahoma. The alert Reagan team recovered four Bulldog fumbles.

1970 DISTRICT CO—CHAMPS

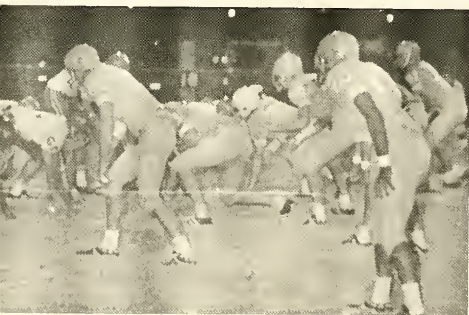

OWLS STOMP CRANE 27-8

The Golden Cranes were once again shot down by the Owls as the Blue and Gold team went on to take its third district win and throwing the district championship into a three way tie. Scoring was handled by Hickman, Puentez, Dumas, and Nunnally.

OWLS BAFFLE BUFFALOES 47-13

The final game of the season ended with another victory for the Owls which gave them a 4-1 record in district play and co-championship of District 5AA.

BACK-UP TEAM FOR THE VARSITY

The "B" team squad was made up of eight sophomores and fourteen freshmen boys. These boys worked the same long hours as the varsity squad and played eight games during the season in their training for the advanced play in the seasons ahead.

They were ably coached by Jack Kiser, who was assisted by John Smithson.

MARCHING AT EVERY AUTUMN FESTIVITY

The Pride of Reagan County performed at each game throughout the football season, always presenting excellent halftime entertainment for the spectators.

For the second consecutive year the band earned a first division rating in the UIL Marching Contest. Once again they were invited to the annual San Angelo University homecoming and were selected as the number one band in their class.

Band Council

The band council was composed of students elected by the members of the "Pride of Reagan County". These officers worked directly under the leadership of the band director to help initiate band activities.

Their distinctive leadership aided in the success of all band activities.

WINTER

FROSTY WINDS BRING WINTER

AS WINTER MADE ITS ENTRANCE the outside scene as well as the activities changed. The trees and branches became barren, the grass was gone and the wind often moaned and howled.

The sound of the bouncing of basketballs was heard. Fans gathered in the gym to cheer the Owls to victory. Mid-term exams were getting close so some turned diligently to their books. Plans for the annual tournament were made, and students waited eagerly for the event.

AND THEN THERE WAS CHRISTMAS—

CLEAN SPORTSMANSHIP

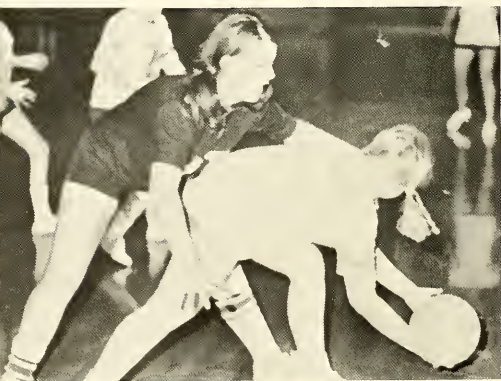

Intramural Code of the G.A.A.'s

I want to play the game in the spirit of fairness and clean sportsmanship; to observe all rules and accept decisions of the officials; to treat my opponent as my guest and to put clean play and real sportsmanship above all victories. Let me win without boasting and lose without grudge. I know victory is no great matter. The important thing in sports is the striving to excel and the good feeling it fosters between those who play fair and have no excuse when they lose.

INTRAMURALS WERE "OUT OF THIS WORLD"

The annual Basketball Intramurals, sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Association, were held in December with numerous teams entered. The theme for the event was "The Space Age." The Jetsons were the champions of the Intramurals, and the Moon Maids took second place. Third place was awarded to the Atom Ants. In the game for Consolation, the Moon Mullins took a big victory. Most valuable player was Iris Childs, and Best Sport was Blain Holland.

SPRING

WARM SUNSHINE MEANS SPRING

As frosty winds subsided and the breezes became gentle, "Mr. Sun" appeared more often. Bits of green began to appear on the ground and in the trees.

Students then turned to track, tennis, and golf. The subjects became harder for the end of the year was approaching, so some began to study a bit more. The seniors began to make plans and to think of—GRADUATION!

KNIGHT OWLS SWING OUT

The stage band, The Knight Owls, added the "swing" to the music program in RCHS. These students, also members of the RCHS concert band, entertained frequently for school and civic affairs.

FHA AIDS THE SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY

Thelma Mendez, Becky Kohutek, Susan Guess, Cindy Scott, Blain Holland, Linda Calley, Cindy Carter, Lisa White, Madeline Thompson, Carolyn Freeman, Patti Henderson, Wilma Moten, Irna Turner, Virginia Pennington, Janet Guess, Hilda Kruse, Mary Hodge, Cindy Midkiff, Sylvia Martinez, Roselinda Gonzales, Judy Love, Karen Cain, Debbie Dykes, Peggy Lynch, Connie Robles, Ester Lara

Meetings, dinners, open house and other activities filled the agenda of the FHA Organization.

These girls met monthly for a planned program which was to promote growth for their future. The annual Christmas Open House has become a tradition in the Community. Also they were called on for decorations for banquets, and to sack candy for Santa.

This group always recognized the senior citizens and the children of the community, as well as being a vital part of the activities of RCHS.

Our Sponsor

"Mr. President"

The council was active in promoting a loyal, friendly atmosphere in R.C.H.S. This organization, with representation from each class, conducted all elections and directed various activities throughout the year. Their planning of homecoming, slave day, and tournament housing were among their activities for the year.

Wanda served as Recording Secretary.

Patti and Cindy help with voting.

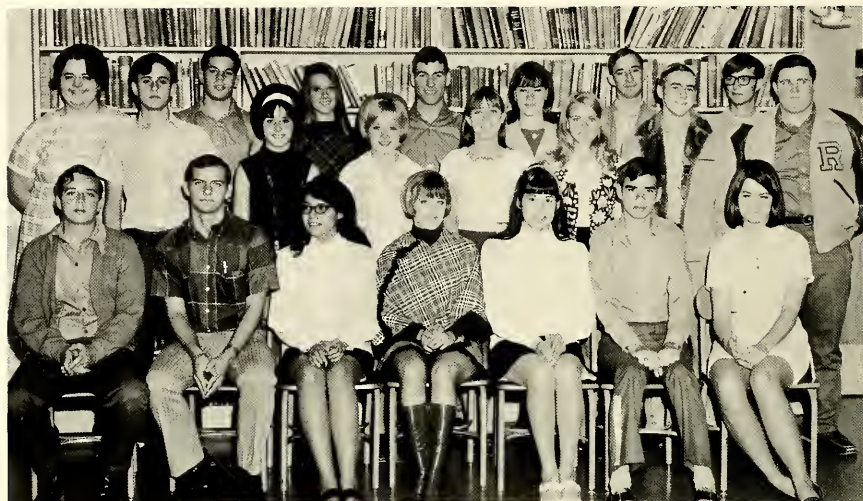

Denna and Sheryl held elections for "Fish" and Sophomores.

LaVerne votes carefully!

COMPOSE NHS

President Max converses with Ricky.

Studying is a must for NHS members.

This organization, the National Honor Society, recognized those students in RCHS who maintained a high scholastic average and met the requirements of leadership, character, and service. Seniors and juniors composed the organization, with sophomores initiated in the Spring, but remaining only honorary members until they become juniors.

Dickie and Mike work together in the library.

Barbara and Rosalinda are junior members.

Patti and Kathy were graduate members of NHS.

The members of the choir presented excellent and inspiring entertainment for school assemblies and community affairs during the year.

Their first performance "Love, American Style" had several presentations and was well received each time.

To brighten the Christmas season the group presented for the community a program entitled "The Meaning of Christmas".

The sixty voices of these RCHS students added to the events of the year.

MANY VARIED PRESENTATIONS

"You're dirty!" from "The Cry of the Crows"

Jimmy plays the thug in "Afraid of the Dark"

Jim introduced many assembly programs.

Harry played Harlequin in "Columbine Cum Laude"

Robert gave an excellent performance of "Exit the Big Bad Wolf"

Danny working on his part in "Afraid of the Dark"

Mike presented "The Breaking Point" in an assembly

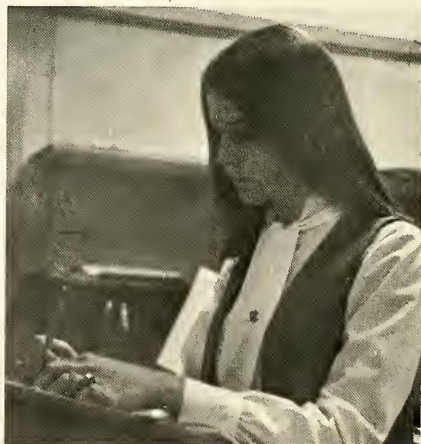

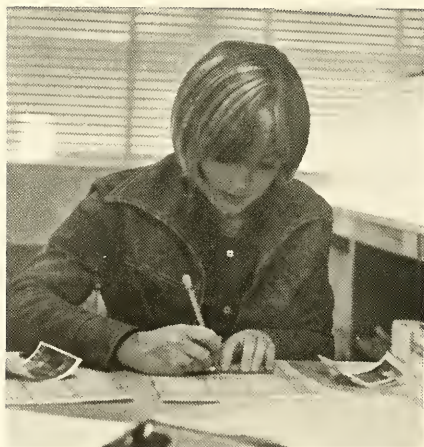

All speech students made up this organization which gave many presentations for both assembly and for the public.

A group of plays was presented for the general public during the late winter. From this group several attended the Sonora Speech Meet, and participated in UIL Literary Events and in UIL Play Contest. Their contribution to the events of the year was great.

The working staff met each day during sixth period and worked on the paper and yearbook. The annual was directed by the editor, Cindy Scott, and the paper was directed by the editor, Patti Henderson.

AND RECORD EVENTS

The Owl's Hoot

REAGAN COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL
BIG LAKE, TEXAS

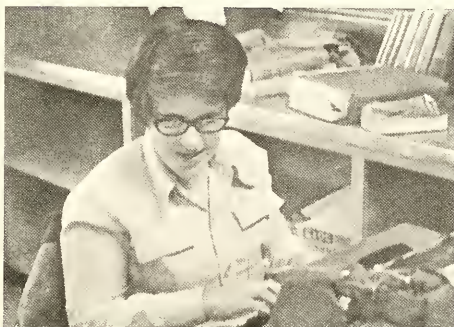

Patti Henderson

Patty Seale

The Owl's Hoot Staff was composed of four girls who published a school paper bi-weekly. The paper is sent to the UIL Press Conference in Austin each year, where it is rated. Critiques are sent to the staff members. Using the critiques of the past this group worked hard to make this year's "Owl's Hoot" the best ever for RCHS.

Blain Holland

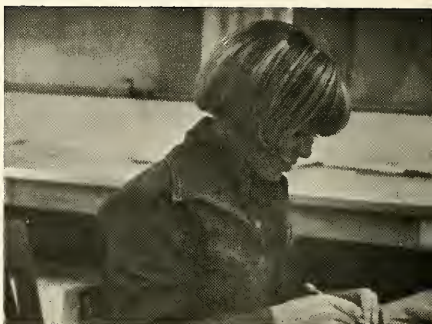

Iris Childs

ASSEMBLING A YEARBOOK

The annual working staff was composed of eight members who spent long tedious hours preparing "The Owl". Layouts were drawn and redrawn, and pictures were snapped and resnapped. All of this is part of putting a yearbook together.

Other RCHS students aided in selling yearbooks, and were always available for extra duties.
